The bridge to possible

Cisco Guided Study Groups

Unleash the power of collaborative learning

So you've had your eye on earning a Cisco certification. Maybe you feel comfortable preparing on your own. But maybe you could benefit from a collaborative approach—a coach to guide you through the tricky parts, a schedule to keep you on track, flexibility for studying at odd hours, and a community of like-minded learners with whom you can study and practice.

You can have all of this with a Cisco Guided Study Group, a blended learning experience that combines the best of instructor-led training and self-paced e-learning to help you prepare for your exam.

Flexible exam prep for your busy schedule

Cisco Guided Study Groups give you the flexibility you want and the structure you need to fit studying into your busy life. An expert learning coach will guide you through weekly structured learning sessions and work with you during designated hours, scheduled twice a week in Webex. You can study any time of day or night with self-paced e-learning. Then you can practice what you've learned through hands-on labs. Round it all out with online exam-review questions and an exam voucher, and you have everything you need to prepare.
